

Examples of Characters

The Hunger Games* by Suzanne Collins

Protagonist: Katniss

Internal Motivation: Take care of loved ones

External Motivation: Takes Prim's place

Antagonist: President Snow

Internal Motivation: Power

External Motivation: Control the districts

*Clashes because when Katniss protects her loved ones, President Snow loses control.

By Darkness Hid* by Jill Williamson

Protagonist: Achan

Internal Motivation: To be free

External Motivation: Train to be squire

Antagonist: Prince Gidon

Internal Motivation: Power and pleasure

External Motivation: Mess with Achan

*Clashes because Prince Gidon tries to control Achan, who wants to be free.

Harry Potter and the Sorcerer's Stone* by J.K. Rowling

Protagonist: Harry

Internal Motivation: Justice

External Motivation: Protect Sorcerer's Stone

Antagonist: Lord Voldemort

Internal Motivation: Immortality

External Motivation: Get Sorcerer's Stone

*Clashes because they both want the stone.

Pride and Prejudice* by Jane Austen

Protagonist: Elizabeth Bennett

Internal Motivation: True love

External Motivation: Wait for Mr. Right

Antagonist: Mr. Darcy

Internal Motivation: To find a wife who isn't after his money

External Motivation: Marry Elizabeth

*Clashes because Elizabeth believes the lies she's heard about Mr. Darcy and her own assumptions, so she thinks he's a jerk, when the truth is, he's a real catch.

Replication: The Jason Experiment* by Jill Williamson

Protagonist: Martyr

Internal Motivation: Help/protect others

External Motivation: See sky before expires

Antagonist: Dr. Kane

Internal Motivation: Health and wealth

External Motivation: Get Martyr back in time

*Clashes because Martyr's escape exposes Dr. Kane's whole operation and puts Dr. Kane at risk in more than one way.

The Lightning Thief* by Rick Riordan

Protagonist: Percy Jackson

Internal Motivation: Get mom back

External Motivation: Succeed in quest and make a deal with Hades

Antagonist: Luke

Internal Motivation: Power

External Motivation: Make sure Percy fails

*Clashes because they both want to reach their goal, but only one can win.

Leviathan* by Scott Westerfeld

Protagonist: Alek

Internal Motivation: Justice

External Motivation: Not get caught

Antagonist: Deryn Sharp

Internal Motivation: Make Daddy proud

External Motivation: Success in career

*Clashes because Alex and Deryn are on different sides of the war, and Deryn should turn Alex in.

The Lion, Witch, and the Wardrobe* by C.S. Lewis

Protagonist: Kids

Internal Motivation: Justice

External Motivation: Help Aslan

Antagonist: White Witch

Internal Motivation: Power

External Motivation: Defeat Aslan

*Clashes because only one can win.